

Reed-Custer Educational Foundation Scholarship Application 2021 RCHS Graduate

Purpose: The Reed-Custer Educational Foundation's purpose is to help Reed-Custer High School students and residents achieve their educational goals.

Scholarship: All eligible students may apply for up to a $1,000 academic scholarship. The scholarship may be used at any accredited four-year college or university, two-year community or junior college, or trade school in which a course of study will lead to a bachelor's or associates' degree or certificate. Scholarship payments will be made out to awardees' school of choice. Scholarships will be paid in equal installments each semester.

Eligibility: All 2021 Reed-Custer High School graduates who will begin college or a formal vocational training program during the summer or fall in 2021.

Criteria: A committee of the Reed-Custer Educational Foundation will choose scholarship recipients based on the following criteria:

- Application: Complete attached 2021 RCHS Graduate Scholarship Application.
- Essay: Write a 500-word essay answering the question below. Essay must be double-spaced, grammatically correct and well organized.
